Tax Assistance Center needs volunteers

The Athens County Fast and Free Tax Assistance Center is looking for volunteers to help area residents e-file their tax returns.

Volunteers are needed to greet customers, screen callers and prepare basic federal, state and school district tax returns. The center will be open January through April at The Work Station in The Plains.

At the Fast and Free Tax Assistance Center, free tax preparation is available to area residents filing their basic tax returns. The center also helps low to moderate-income working individuals and families qualify for the Earned Income Tax Credit, or the EITC, a refundable federal income tax credit.

The center relies on volunteers, and area residents are needed to help make the program a success again this year. The Work Station is a fun and relaxing environment, and the work is rewarding.

For more information on volunteering for this valuable community service program, call Tracy Galway at 740-797-2523 or send an e-mail to jfs@athenscountygovernment.com
